ATLANTA: The team behind Atlas announced a new ranking from Forbes Travel Guide, which revealed the Buckhead restaurant as one of the most outstanding establishments in the world. The 2022 Forbes Travel Guide Star Award Winners were released at the end of last week, and Atlas was selected as one of only four restaurants in Georgia. As the only independent, global rating system for luxury restaurants, hotels, and spas, according to its website, Forbes Travel Guide enlists a team of incognito professional inspectors to travel the globe to evaluate restaurants, hotels, and spas based on more than 900 rigorous and objective standards.

“Our entire Atlas team is honored to have been included on such a prestigious list, and to be one of four in Georgia putting Georgia on the map is even more exciting. It is our mission to provide a unique and seasonally creative food and beverage experience while complementing that with superior service, ultimately making Atlas a one-of-a-kind memory for each guest that visits,” said Freddy Money, Culinary Director. “To be recognized for our work is incredibly special as it is a global nod to the Atlanta dining scene.”

First debuting on the Atlanta dining scene in 2015, Atlas, which is located within the St. Regis Atlanta, was created as a chef-driven dining destination for Atlantans, travelers, and beyond. Under the renowned culinary leadership of Chef Freddy Money, Atlas brings a fresh, innovative, and unparalleled approach to traditional cooking. Having trained in some of the best culinary environments in Europe and working behind the pass for the Alain Ducasse Group, Chef Freddy’s menu is inspired by partnerships with local farms and story-driven dishes. During each dining experience, guests can expect to be taken on a journey that focuses on ingredients, provenance, and texture resulting in a powerful combination of wonderful and memorable food.

Want to get a taste of one of the most outstanding dining establishments in the world? Atlas recently announced Mother’s Day reservations are now available for dinner. Guests can expect a 7-course tasting menu with optional wine pairings, $210/person.
