ATLANTA CHEF FREDDY MONEY TO JOIN THE RITZ-CARLTON, HALF MOON BAY'S GLOBAL CUISINE SERIES

Chef Money Kicks Off an Exceptional Line-Up of Award-Winning Chefs This Weekend in California, Reservations Available

ATLANTA: Chef Freddy Money, the Executive Chef of both Atlanta's award-winning restaurants Atlas and The Garden Room at the St. Regis, has made his way to California this weekend to participate in the Global Cuisine Series put on by The Ritz-Carlton, Half Moon Bay. The Series returns after a two-year hiatus and after hiring Chef Roberto Riveros. Throughout the Series, Michelin-star chefs from across the country will make their way to the west coast to collaborate on dinner and brunch menus for one weekend each at the resort's Navio restaurant.

"It is an honor to participate in the return of the Global Cuisine Series for a special collaboration with Chef Roberto Riveros. I'm excited for the opportunity to take a piece of Atlas to Navio and reflect what we do every day," shared Chef Money.

Who: Executive Chef Freddy Money will join Chef Roberto Riveros in California July 22-24. With an early beginning in the culinary world, Money's first job was at Kensington Palace, before he went on to train at some of the top culinary spots in Europe. He has since worked with some of the largest names in the Michelin star world including El Bulli, The Fat Duck and more. Currently, he oversees the menus at both Atlas and The Garden Room and is passionate about cuisine creating wonderful memories.

What: The Global Cuisine Series, returning after two years, will feature three different chefs on separate weekends. Chef Money will collaborate with Executive Chef Roberto at the restaurant Navio, creating dishes reflective of their respective establishments. On the weekend of each guest chef visit, the dishes will appear on the restaurant's Friday and Saturday Chef's Tasting Dinner menus and Saturday and Sunday Brunch. The Tasting Dinner Menu will include three dishes from the visiting chef and is available for $249/guest.

When: THIS WEEKEND: July 22-24, 2022

Where: The Series is held at The Ritz-Carlton, Half Moon Bay in California. As the only five-star luxury oceanfront resort in the San Francisco Bay Area, the establishment's on-site restaurant Navio will host each chef. The resort is located at 1 Miramontes Point Rd., Half Moon Bay, CA 94019.
