HOLIDAY 2018

After living in Italy for seven years, mastering the Italian language and developing intimate knowledge of Italian cuisine, Tal Baum set out to bring a new Italian concept to the city of Atlanta. Believing that the hectic nature of modern life should not compromise the quality of the food we eat, Tal designed the perfect market café and wine bar – Bellina Alimentari.

Set up with many ways to eat and shop for convenience including full-service dining, fast-casual dining and a small market to pick up every day Italian essentials, Bellina Alimentari hits the mark on making environmentally friendly, healthy and affordable food a way of life.

Tal imports high quality goods from local, sustainable farms throughout Italy, many of which are not easily available, to provide Atlantans with a truly traditional taste of Italian cuisine.

As we head into the holiday season, Bellina Alimentari would like to share a sneak peek of our special 2018 holiday gift baskets containing impeccable goods as well as ways to enjoy Bellina through culinary experiences, classes, gift cards and our holiday food and beverage menus.
