WHERE TO SPEND PATIO SEASON IN ATLANTA WITH 360 MEDIA CLIENTS

Make the Hunt for the Best Al Fresco Dining in the City Easier Than Ever Before

ATLANTA: There's no feeling quite like a warm spring day in the sun, signaling that summer is right around the corner. For Atlantans, that means finding a way to wind down while soaking in the beautiful weather. What better way to take a much-deserved break than with must-try food, signature sips, sunny skies, and good company. Patio season is finally here, and we've rounded up some of the best al fresco spots around the city, so that no matter what part of town you're in, you know exactly where to go:

- Atlantic Station – With no shortage of outdoor spaces and rooftop restaurants, visit Atlantic Station to pick from a diverse culinary array of options. Soak in the warm weather at HOBNOB Neighborhood Tavern for delicious Southern fare, Azotea Cantina for Mexican and margaritas, or Naaanstop for casual Indian cuisine. Rosé Bistro & Champagne Bar offers Parisian cuisine with an outdoor patio made for sipping. And as always, the Atlantic Green is the ideal spot for picnics, outdoor fitness, and relaxing in the sunshine.
- Bazati – Located in one of Atlanta's trendiest neighborhoods, Bazati is the perfect spot to grab a bite and people-watch on the BeltLine. With a brand-new menu featuring a Latin-inspired twist, alongside expansive patio seating, treat yourself to dinner and drinks in the fresh air. Located on the rooftop of Bazati, you'll find Estrella, the Latin-style restaurant and cocktail bar with an incredible view overlooking the neighborhood trail.
- Larkin on Memorial's Firepit Pizza Tavern – Featuring comfy couches, casual benches and its very own firepit, Firepit Pizza Tavern's patio perfectly matches the vibe of its menu. Indulge in pizzas, sandwiches, drinks, and more, just in time for patio season.
- Rooftop L.O.A. – Rooftop L.O.A.'s Grove takes patio dining to a whole new level. The expansive area offers stunning panoramic views of Atlanta's iconic skyline, in addition to beautiful greenery and a myriad of seating options. With creative cocktails and an incredible bites menu, L.O.A.'s Grove is the perfect patio to spend spring and summer days.
- Varuni Napoli – Varuni Napoli's secluded outdoor patio in Midtown makes the experience of eating a delicious Neapolitan pie even more enjoyable. Featuring a touch of greenery in the form of a beautifully, rustic old tree and ivy-covered wall, you can choose to soak up the sun or sit in the shade under an umbrella, all while enjoying a slice of Atlanta's best pizza. Walking the BeltLine? Enjoy Varuni Napoli on Krog Street Market's covered patio.
- Vinings Jubilee – Head over to Vinings Jubilee to experience small town charm and a variety of al fresco dining options. Have your next brunch date on Another Broken Egg Café's beautiful patio and delight in fan favorites like Strawberry Pound Cake French Toast, Eggs Benedict, or a Mimosa pitcher. Café at Pharr's lunchtime fare was created for picnics and patios! Patrons can enjoy healthy salads, sandwiches, sides, and more right on the patio. Mellow is exactly what you'll be while dining with friends on the pizzas, burgers, wings, and "Liquid Karma" cocktails on the patio at Mellow Mushroom. SOHO's charming patio reflects the rustic, comforting feel of its All-American menu. Open both day and night, SOHO's patio is a great spot to enjoy food, drinks, and plenty of fun this season. You can never go wrong with a good burger, and having one on a spacious covered patio might be an even better choice. The Stockyard Burgers and Bones patio is the perfect spot to enjoy the classic Yard Burger, Angry Clucker fried chicken sandwich, and even Sunday brunch.
