SOCIALBITES FOOD HUB ANNOUNCES EXCITING LINEUP OF REGULAR PROGRAMMING

Sandy Springs Location Welcomes Trivia, Live Music, and More!

ATLANTA: SocialBites, metro Atlanta's first Food Hub, is excited to announce its full schedule of weekly programming. SocialBites opened its doors this July in Sandy Springs, offering residents a unique new option for enjoying delicious food and building connection with family and friends. With four different restaurants, a full bar, interactive games, and now, exciting events taking place regularly each week, SocialBites is bringing food, entertainment and community together!

"Our programming is a perfect addition to SocialBites and helps create the experience that we envisioned for our guests," said Aziz Hashim, Founder/Principal of Experiential Brands. "The elements of connection are a part of what sets SocialBites apart as a Food Hub. We've already seen groups coming in to eat, drink, and bring their own dominoes or cards, in addition to enjoying the games we built into the Food Hub. We're excited to provide even more opportunities that bring people together regularly."

Along with the weekly programming, SocialBites also offers a variety of games that guests can enjoy every day. Inside, the Food Hub now houses shelves filled with a selection of classic and modern games, like Uno, Life, Magnetic Chess, Banana Grams, and more. Guests who would rather hangout outdoors can enjoy several rounds of cornhole on SocialBites' turf patio.
