ATLANTA: Mark your calendars for a paw-some day of fun and love as Atlantic Station presents its first-ever Adoptoberfest – a one-of-a-kind pet adoption and fall festival designed for animal lovers and their furry companions in Atlantic Green!

This heartwarming event, set for Sunday, Oct. 6, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., is a collaboration with LifeLine Animal Project and will be hosted by actor Karen Ceesay, known for her work in Netflix's "Stranger Things" and AMC's "The Walking Dead." LifeLine is the largest nonprofit animal welfare organization in Georgia, dedicated to ending the euthanasia of healthy and treatable animals.

Guests will have the opportunity to meet adorable, adoptable pets looking for their fur-ever homes. Attendees can also browse and shop for the latest pet essentials from local vendors such as Country Dog Market, HBCU Pets, The Lux Dog Grooming, Bark and Board West Midtown, and more – all while supporting and giving back to the animals.

Adding even more excitement, the event will feature a Doggy Halloween Costume Contest, where pet owners are encouraged to dress up their pups for a chance to win fantastic prizes from Wag-A-Lot, Museum of Illusions, HOBNOB, and more! Celebrity judges, including actor and activist Elaine Hendrix and Craig Koch, CEO and founder of Wag-A-Lot, will be on hand to select the winners.

This is one event you and your pet won't want to miss! For more information visit Adoptoberfest here.
