ATLANTA: Harry Norman, REALTORS® is proud to announce the Grand Opening Celebration for The Summit at Ellijay, a new luxury community of single-family homes in the scenic North Georgia city known for its apple orchards, wineries, and sweeping mountain views. Guests are invited to tour a stunning model home and explore the thoughtfully designed community, which features spacious, customizable homes. This event presents a rare opportunity to secure a home in Ellijay at a time when housing inventory remains low.

The homes, which start in the high $400s, present a rustic, charming exterior that matches the environment of the mountainside town, with a modern, sophisticated interior that provides residents with an elevated living experience. Members of The Summit at Ellijay community will also enjoy inviting amenities, including a pool, outdoor community firepit, and more. With six unique floor plans to choose from, each home is designed to accommodate a range of lifestyles. Because construction is just beginning, buyers have the opportunity to personalize finishes and details, ensuring their home reflects their style and needs.

“With North Georgia continuing to attract homebuyers looking for natural beauty and a relaxed pace of life, The Summit at Ellijay provides the perfect balance of sophistication and tranquility,” said Harry Norman, REALTORS® agent Danielle Burgess. “Nestled just beyond the historic downtown, this community offers spacious, beautifully designed homes that feel like a private mountain retreat – yet remain conveniently close to shopping, dining, and local attractions.”

In addition to previewing a model home, event attendees are welcome to enjoy a full day of festivities, including a ribbon-cutting ceremony, complimentary lunch provided by Arrow Exterminators, custom cake pops courtesy of Affinity Home Lending, and more.

Join the exciting celebration with an RSVP by Friday, March 14 to rsvp@360media.net. *Interviews available upon request.
