ATLANTA: ADAC announces the return of its Spring Sample Sale, the center's highly anticipated, twice-yearly shopping event where luxury design meets exclusive pricing. Taking place from March 18 to March 20, this limited three-day event invites both the public and trade professionals to shop high-end designer brands at reduced prices across participating showrooms at ADAC and ADAC West.

Spring Sample Sale has become a staple on the design calendar each year. Guests will have access to a curated selection of designer furnishings, rugs, lighting, and accessories sourced from ADAC's renowned collection of showrooms. From statement-making outdoor pieces and beautifully crafted indoor furniture to distinctive lighting and one-of-a-kind decorative accents, the sale offers an opportunity to invest in elevated design at extraordinary values. Whether refreshing a favorite room or sourcing standout pieces for a larger redesign, shoppers can expect remarkable selections at rare price points.

"Spring Sample Sale is a standout moment for our design community," said Katie Miner, General Manager of ADAC. "It's an opportunity for homeowners, industry professionals, and design lovers alike to experience the depth and quality of our showrooms while taking advantage of a unique opportunity to shop. We're excited to open our doors and welcome new and returning guests to this event."
