ATLANTA: This August, ADAC opens its doors for one of the Southeast's most anticipated home design shopping events as the ADAC Fall Sample Sale returns Aug. 19–21. For three days only, the public and design trade alike can browse exceptional savings on luxury furnishings, lighting, rugs, accessories, artwork and more from participating showrooms throughout ADAC and ADAC West.

Held just twice each year, ADAC's Sample Sales offer a rare opportunity to shop designer brands at significant discounts while exploring one of the nation's premier destinations for luxury interiors. Whether searching for a statement piece, refreshing a room or uncovering a one-of-a-kind find, shoppers will discover thoughtfully curated collections spanning a variety of styles and price points.

"The Fall Sample Sale is one of our most anticipated events because it welcomes everyone to experience the quality, craftsmanship and creativity that define ADAC," said Katie Miner, General Manager of ADAC. "It's an exciting opportunity to explore our showrooms, connect with industry experts and take home special pieces at remarkable values."
